

[Inside this issue]

DEC/JAN_13/14

FEATURES ▶ ▶ ▶ LEGAL ▶ ▶ ▶ NEWS ▶ ▶ ▶ RESEARCH ▶ ▶ ▶ BOOKSHELF

- 03 LEADER
HWS challenge The proposed Health and Work Service is no substitute for comprehensive OH delivery, but it could be the much-needed bridge between the OH haves and have-nots
- 04 NEWS
 ... absence on the rise – results of 2013 CIPD/Simplyhealth survey ... pregnancy discrimination – government funds new research ... barriers to work – EHRC examines quantitative analysis of disabled people’s experiences ... FTP doctors at suicide risk? – GMC review ... HSE annual statistics ... cost of HSE intervention fees ... focus on health and safety – business leaders demand change ... corporate manslaughter – fourth company convicted ... health check for benefits ... nurse unhappy about workload – latest RCN poll findings ... OH referrals – new OH at Work ‘teabreaker’ poll ... benchmarking OH
- 08 LEGAL NEWS
 ... HIV dismissal breached human rights – IB v Greece ... pension regs – what OH physicians must know ... knowledge of disability – Cox v Essex County Fire and Rescue Service ... working while off sick – Brito-Babapulle v Ealing Hospital NHS Trust ... safety critical hearing – Mukadam v London Underground Ltd
- 13 CONFERENCE NEWS
Workplace Health 2013
 Rebecca Ghani reports on the annual workshop for the occupational health community. Highlights include Bill Gunnyeon on the planned launch by the DWP of its Health and Work Service.
- 20 FEATURE
Fit for the future?
 A draft report from the Council for Work and Health on the future of occupational health adds to the growing recognition in the profession that the organisation and delivery of OH services needs to modernise. Paul Suff examines the report and the case for change.
- 26 FEATURE
Health screening at recruitment
Part 1: pre-employment and pre-placement health questionnaires and declarations
 John Ballard presents the first findings from the 2013 Occupational Health [at Work] survey of employers’ practice in pre-employment health screening. Part 1 focuses on current practice and what has changed since our previous research in 2006.
- 36 FEATURE
Keeping railway medicine on track
 OH professionals have an important role in the rail industry assessing the fitness of safety-critical workers. The UK industry is also focusing on the health and wellbeing of its workforce. ARIOPS chair Dr Jim Ford explains.
- 40 EXPERT WITNESS
Adjusting for absence
 Our legal expert Diana Kloss looks at how much leeway an employer should give when a disabled employee has sickness absence connected to his or her impairment, but which takes them over the absence policy trigger.
- 42 OPINION
Fit for purpose?
 Dr Paul Nicholson, chair of the BMA’s Occupational Medicine Committee, argues that the current plans from the DWP for its Health and Work Service could damage existing OH provision.
- 44 BOOKSHELF
 Contemporary occupational health nursing, edited by Greta Thornbory.
- 45 RESEARCH PLUS
 Our compendium of published evidence on occupational health.
- 47 BRIEFING
 ... your need-to-know guide to this issue