

[Inside this issue]

OCT/NOV_06

FEATURES >>> LEGAL >>> INSIGHT >>> NEWS >>> RESEARCH >>> BRIEFING >>> DIARY

- 03 LEADER
Good work, good health Who benefits from the health-promoting effects of work?
- 04 NEWS
 ... 212 workers lose their lives ... court condemns UK working time guidance ... cost of absence is 'close to zero' ... work-related injuries ... global classification of chemicals ... Scottish corporate killing bill ... occupational ill health hits two million ... poor health damages work opportunities ... business predicts an unhealthy future
- 08 LEGAL NEWS
 ... EAT clarifies disability sick pay – O'Hanlon v Commissioners for HM Revenue and Customs ... Medical evidence required – Beales v the Secretary of State for Work and Pensions
- 10 FEATURE
The health and work debate
 Unemployment has long been known as a risk factor for cardiovascular disease and reduced life expectancy, but is work itself actually good for your health? OH at Work reports the findings of an evidence review commissioned by the Department for Work and Pensions.
- 13 FEATURE
Outlawing age discrimination
 The Employment Equality (Age) Regulations 2006 came into force on 1 October and outlaw age discrimination in the workplace. Paul Suff examines the new law and its likely impact on OH professionals.
- 18 SURVEY
Pre-employment health screening
 John Ballard presents the findings of exclusive research on pre-employment health screening. The first part of our analysis concentrates on pre-employment health questionnaires, the types of questions asked and how these are used in the recruitment process.
- 26 FEATURE
Getting ready for REACH
 With new European regulation of chemicals due to come into force in April 2007, BOHS president Andy Gillies explores the implementation of the forthcoming REACH regime and examines where OH professionals will play a key role.
- 30 SPECIAL REPORT
100 years of ICOH
 The second of our two reports from the 28th International Congress on Occupational Health discusses work factors in cardiovascular disease, the health consequences of flexible work, developments in nanotechnology and occupational exposure limits.
- 33 INSIGHT
Pandemic flu and the implications for work
 In our new 'Insight' section, public health and communicable disease expert Dr Nick Phin answers 20 questions on pandemic flu and explains its potential implications on work and business.
- 35 EXPERT WITNESS
Pre-employment screening
 In tandem with our research on pre-employment health screening, and in the second of a two-part legal review, Diana Kloss explains the relevance of case law and the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 on pre-employment health disclosures.
- 37 RESEARCH DIGEST
 ... work rehabilitation in severe mental illness ... depression risk linked to workplace violence ... HIV transmission from healthcare worker to patient ... acupuncture good for back pain? ... inorganic lead can be absorbed through the skin ... treatment for low-back pain
- 40 BOOKSHELF & DIARY
 ... age guides ... employment law and OH
- 41 TOOLBOX
 ... roundup of regulatory changes, guidance, campaigns and consultations