

[Inside this issue]

OCT/NOV_08

FEATURES >>> LEGAL >>> DILEMMA >>> NEWS >>> RESEARCH >>> BRIEFING >>> DIARY

- 03 LEADER
Glass walls Demarcation and a lack of communication between professional groups must be addressed to improve return-to-work outcomes.
- 04 NEWS
 ... workplace depression pilot ... UK remains near top of working hours league ... dealing with mental health conditions ... working time limits harm healthcare ... crackdown on rogue employers ... get well soon – post-surgery advice ... bullying rife at work ... report calls for better health and safety information ... 12 million hurt at work
- 10 LEGAL NEWS
 ... failure to make adjustments in sick pay case – Bury Metro Racial Equality Council and ors v Lyle ... tribunal criticised in DDA case – Mahon v Accuread Ltd ... Equality Bill
- 12 FEATURE
Back to work ... sooner
 John Ballard examines a recent independent scientific review that finds strong evidence to underpin vocational rehabilitation interventions.
- 16 FEATURE
Mediating on absence
 A team of researchers from the At Work Partnership and the Institute for Employment Studies has been examining the case for early mediation in absence management and return to work. The first stage of the project has revealed strong support among experts and practitioners for the proposed intervention.
- 22 FEATURE
Workers abroad
 Occupational travel is on the increase, with business travellers accounting for 9.1 million visits abroad from the UK in 2006. In the first of a two-part series, Dipti Patel outlines the epidemiology of travel-related illness, including increasingly common infectious diseases, such as diarrhoea, malaria and sexually transmitted infections.
- 27 FEATURE
Rotherham MBC fights back against absence
 Paul Suff finds out how a new absence management process and targeted intervention helped the Yorkshire local authority reduce its absence rates.
- 30 DILEMMA
Powdered latex gloves
 Alf Cummings, head of health and safety at NHS Lothian, and Dr Kit Harding, director of NHS Plus, debate whether the new guidance on latex allergy is a help or a hindrance.
- 32 FEATURE
Dealing with difficult issues
 Part-two of our series on difficult issues in OH practice includes the right approach to adopt when a patient brings a third party to a consultation.
- 35 EXPERT WITNESS
Discrimination once removed
 The ECJ ruling in the case of Coleman v Attridge Law has been heralded as a landmark decision in the field of disability discrimination. Diana Kloss explains.
- 37 BOOKSHELF & DIARY
 ... vocational rehabilitation ... reproductive hazards ... key events in occupational health and safety
- 38 RESEARCH DIGEST
 ...cycling seat hazards ... leadership and workplace health ... universal flu jab? ...breast cancer risk at work ... NICE absence guidance
- 40 RESEARCH PLUS
 Our compendium of published evidence on occupational health
- 42 CLASSIFIEDS
 ... MBA course
- 43 BRIEFING
 ... your need-to-know guide to this issue