

[Inside this issue] JUNE/JULY_09

FEATURES ▶▶▶ LEGAL ▶▶▶ SURVEY ▶▶▶ NEWS ▶▶▶ RESEARCH ▶▶▶ EXPERT WITNESS ▶▶▶ DIARY

- 03 LEADER
A bill of rights Disabled people are underrepresented in higher skilled, better salaried and more secure jobs
- 04 NEWS & LEGAL NEWS
 ... alarms for nurses ... Europe-wide H&S survey ... pandemic flu guidance ... nightshift and breast cancer ... unions call for chemical authorisations ... new chemicals directorate ... NICE recommendations on long-term absence ... testing PPE in hairdressing ... TUC demands maximum temperature legislation ... BOHS conference ... nanoparticles head list of emerging risks ... first corporate manslaughter charge ... Scotland acts on asbestos ... opt-out reprieved
- 11 FEATURE
One rule to ring them all
 John Ballard looks at how the Equality Bill will harmonise discrimination legislation.
- 14 FEATURE
Fit for work – with conditions
 Condition management could help occupational health professionals to address illness behaviour and psychosocial barriers to recovery, explains John Harrison.
- 17 FEATURE
Managing mental health and employment
 Anne Irvine reports on a project examining people's experiences of sustaining paid work while also suffering from a mental health condition.
- 22 SURVEY
Professional practice: Part 2 – sickness absence
 John Ballard reveals how OH nurses and physicians are dealing with sickness absence.
- 29 FEATURE
Tackling long-term absence
 East Sussex Council has significantly reduced its long-term sickness absence levels. Paul Suff reports.
- 32 FEATURE
Healthy Minds at Work
 In the final part of his series reporting on the Healthy Minds at Work programme, Andy Smith describes a project investigating the role of the case manager.
- 35 FEATURE
What is wellbeing at work?
 Simon Pickvance argues that 'wellbeing' at work will be difficult to attain without some basic standards of working life.
- 37 EXPERT WITNESS
Say what you mean ... and mean what you say
 Diana Kloss explains why the UK legal system is unique.
- 39 RESEARCH DIGEST & DIARY
 ... shiftwork increases heart disease risk ... asbestos remains big problem for US ... skin care for healthcare workers ... combating PTSD ... asbestos cancer risk highest in post-war carpenters
- 41 RESEARCH PLUS
 Our compendium of published evidence on occupational health
- 42 CLASSIFIEDS
 ... OH advisor – City of Bradford Metropolitan District Council ... MSc in Workplace Health – University of Nottingham

ISSN 1744-2265

Editor: Dr John Ballard

Contributing editor: Paul Suff

Subscriptions enquiries:

email: info@atworkpartnership.co.uk

tel: 0845 017 6986

Occupational Health [at Work] is published six times a year by The At Work Partnership Ltd. We aim to publish authoritative and accurate information, but our publications are for guidance only and are not official information sources and we do not accept liability for the consequences of any errors or omissions. All rights reserved. It is not permitted to reproduce, store or transmit any part of this journal, in any form or by any means.

The At Work Partnership Ltd

19 Bishops Avenue

Elstree

Hertfordshire WD6 3LZ

tel: 0845 017 6986

website: www.atworkpartnership.co.uk

© The At Work Partnership 2009