

[Inside this issue] AUG/SEPT_11

FEATURES ▶▶▶ SURVEY ▶▶▶ LEGAL ▶▶▶ NEWS ▶▶▶ RESEARCH ▶▶▶ EXPERT WITNESS ▶▶▶ DIARY

- 03 LEADER
Legal representation Do employees may have a right to legal representation at disciplinary hearings?
- 04 NEWS
 ... 190 million lost days – latest CBI absence survey findings ... managing presenteeism ... more work needed ... health benefits survey ... neglect of older workers ... fatalities at work – HSE releases provisional figures ... SEQHS awards ... SOM to widen its membership ... Wales tackles mental health stigma ... supporting workers with multiple sclerosis ... mental health in the armed forces ... disabled people need better access to work ... NHS Plus network ... flu vaccine for NHS staff ... modern workplaces ... data sharing code
- 11 LEGAL NEWS
 ... 'unfit for work' is a management decision – DB Schenker Rail (UK) Ltd v Doolan ... joint and several liability – London Borough of Hackney v Sivanandan ... Employment Tribunals ... why the whole is greater than the sum of its parts – Iqbal v Dean Manson Solicitors ... no discrimination protection for 'paid volunteer' – M Breakell v West Midlands Reserve Forces' and Cadets' Association ... corporate manslaughter ... UK attempts to derail pregnant workers directive ... non-specific working time has specific meaning for mobile workers – Ross v Eddie Stobart Ltd
- 16 FEATURE
The safer alternative
 Paul Suff looks at the different safety-engineered medical devices on the market and the barriers to their wider use, despite the introduction, by May 2103, of the EU sharps and needlestick directive.
- 22 FEATURE
Violence at work: part 2
 In the final part of his series, Raymond Flannery discusses the various risk management strategies available to help reduce the incidence of violence at work.
- 25 SURVEY
Professional practice: part 2
 John Ballard presents the second part of his examination of the findings from Occupational Health at Work's exclusive survey of OH professional practice. Part 2 focuses on OH professionals' competences, decision-making, sources of advice and information, as well as their access to training and professional development.
- 34 FEATURE
A holistic approach to stress and wellbeing: part 3
 Andy Smith, Rachel McNamara and Ben Wellens look at the combined effects of occupational health hazards – from noisy and dusty workplaces to nightshift working – on stress and related mental health problems.
- 36 EXPERT WITNESS
Pregnancy, maternity and IVF
 Our legal expert, Diana Kloss examines how the law protects women at work, including the different status afforded pregnant women and those undergoing IVF treatment.
- 38 RESEARCH DIGEST
 ... daytime television – the health risks ... job retention – absence and presenteeism ... return to work – occupational rehabilitation ... barriers to work – US disability legislation ... sleep, work and depression ... sick note training ... presenteeism has long-term impact on health and productivity
- 42 RESEARCH PLUS
 Our compendium of published evidence on occupational health.
- 44 BOOKSHELF
 ... self-help guide to stress ... occupational health and safety management systems
- 47 BRIEFING
 ... your need-to-know guide to this issue