

[Inside this issue]

OCT/NOV_12

FEATURES ▶▶▶ LEGAL ▶▶▶ NEWS ▶▶▶ RESEARCH ▶▶▶ DILEMMA ▶▶▶ EXPERT WITNESS

- 03 LEADER
Reasons to be cheerful Highlighting the benefits of working in OH, including enhanced job satisfaction and a good work–life balance, might help solve the impending recruitment and retention crisis
- 04 NEWS
 ... H&S exemptions ... OH must change ... step up for mental health ... pre-retirees suffering ill health ... managing redundancy of pregnant workers ... MOHAWK working well ... NMC chair
- 07 LEGAL NEWS
 ... holiday pay for sick workers ... handling a heavy burden ... record corporate manslaughter fine ... sharps and needlestick consultation ... tribunal fees could reach £1,200 ... consultation on RIDDOR changes
- 11 FEATURE
Disfigurement at work
 The Equality Act 2010 protects an individual with a severe disfigurement from discrimination in the workplace. However, as disability writer Richard McEachran explains, disfigurement remains one of the most challenging areas of discrimination to address.
- 15 FEATURE
Returning to work following surgery
 How do Swedish guidelines on returning to work after a common surgical operation compare with UK guidance. Nerys Williams, Alison Cook, Gert Lindenger and Jan Larsson give their insight.
- 18 FEATURE
Alcohol on the brain
Part 1: understanding alcohol misuse and its implications for occupational health
 In the first of a two-part feature on alcohol misuse at work, Colin Payton, a consultant occupational physician at the Royal United Hospital in Bath, describes the spectrum of alcohol use and the tools available to OH practitioners to help them identify and diagnose alcohol misuse in workers.
- 22 FEATURE
Safer needles
 With the EU sharps and needlestick directive due to be implemented in member states next year, Dr Blánaid Hayes reports on how Beaumont Hospital in Dublin overcame resistance to the use of engineering controls to prevent needlestick injuries.
- 26 FEATURE
How reasonable are reasonable adjustments?
 The duty to make reasonable adjustments is both wide and complex, and not always fully understood by employers, HR and OH practitioners. Karen Jackson, a solicitor and expert in the field of disability discrimination in employment, explains.
- 31 FEATURE
Fit note practice
 Mary McFadzean outlines the findings of a study examining the impact of fit notes in terms of returning people to work through the use of reasonable adjustments.
- 35 EXPERT WITNESS
Criminal liability
 Many areas of the law on health and safety at work impose criminal liability. However, even in cases where an employer's negligence has led to fatalities, it can be extremely difficult for the authorities to bring a successful prosecution. Diana Kloss explains.
- 37 RESEARCH DIGEST
 ... vaccine reticence ... occupational physicians top work–life balance ... Irish bar staff risk hearing damage ... nanofibre health risks depend on length ... physically sick ... patient handling
- 40 RESEARCH PLUS
 Our compendium of published evidence on occupational health
- 43 BRIEFING
 ... your need-to-know guide to this issue