

[Inside this issue]

OCT/NOV_09

FEATURES ▶▶▶ LEGAL ▶▶▶ SURVEY ▶▶▶ NEWS ▶▶▶ RESEARCH ▶▶▶ EXPERT WITNESS ▶▶▶ DIARY

- 03 LEADER
A bill of rights The government will introduce a clause on pre-employment health enquiries to the Equality Bill
- 04 NEWS
 ... Boorman interim review ... employers express concerns over proposed 'fit notes' ... DoH updates flu predictions ... RRAC finds uncertainty and confusion over H&S laws ... accreditation plans for H&S consultants ... new five-year strategy from EU-OHSA ... latest CIPD absence survey ... Workers' Memorial Day ... no evidence of cell phone interaction ... NHS working time opt-out ... asbestos research
- 09 LEGAL NEWS
 ... European Court of Justice rules on holiday carry-over following illness ... EAT says 'day-to-day' activity does not include career progression – Lothian and Borders Police v Cumming ... when an employer concedes an employee's disability – J Bowers v William Hill Organisation Ltd
- 12 FEATURE
Northern Ireland's police service wins trauma appeal
 Nick Hanning highlights the key aspects of the Court of Appeal judgment, which reduce the chances of officers and former officers of the RUC and PSNI being able to claim damages for psychological and psychiatric injuries sustained during the 'troubles'.
- 15 SURVEY
Nice work if you can get it
 In part 2 of the third OH at Work survey of pay, benefits and professional development, Paul Suff looks at hours of work, benefits, training issues and respondents' views of the OH profession.
- 21 FEATURE
Constructing a healthy legacy
 The UK government hopes hosting the 2012 Olympic Games will leave a lasting sporting legacy, but those charged with delivering OH to the Olympic Park construction have their own legacy ambitions, including improving the long-term health and wellbeing of all those involved. John Ballard reports.
- 28 DILEMMA
Withdrawn consent
 Jacques Tamin and David Coggon debate whether an OH professional should still inform the employer if an employee who has consented to a fitness-for-work medical subsequently withdraws consent.
- 30 FEATURE
Healthy Minds at Work
 Andy Smith's final report on the Healthy Minds at Work programme in Wales describes how multi-convergent therapy improves the likelihood of people with chronic fatigue syndrome returning to work.
- 33 EXPERT WITNESS
The definition of disability
 Diana Kloss reviews recent developments in case law that have altered the definition of disability and says it will be amended further by the Equality Bill 2009.
- 35 DIARY/BOOKSHELF
 ... tackling musculoskeletal problems
- 36 RESEARCH DIGEST
 ... incidence of mental health ... can higher education improve nurses' health? ... paradoxical views of GPs interested in back pain ... can training improve physician wellbeing? ... fatigue linked to medical errors ... cleaners' asthma ... corrigendum
- 39 RESEARCH PLUS
 Our compendium of published evidence on occupational health.
- 41 CLASSIFIEDS
 RCN occupational health nursing forum conference and exhibition ... MSc in Workplace Health – University of Nottingham
- 43 BRIEFING
 ... your need-to-know guide to this issue