Personal Learning Statement

Following my attendance at the above event, my key learning points are as follows:

Understanding the importance carrying out medicals during an employee annual medical. it is importance to assess an employee for their role and if adjustment are needed for their role, it can be put in place for them.

The implications for my practice are as follows:

Any medical not properly assessed can result for the employee not getting the appropriate support which can led to the employee not being competent in their role.
