A two-day annual seminar from The At Work Partnership providing an in-depth clinical and management update on the cutting-edge issues in occupational health today

This two-day seminar is run with the support of:

The main area of interest for the Colt Foundation is to encourage research into health problems created by commerce and industry, and one of the criteria for selecting suitable projects to support is that the results of the research should have a practical and beneficial application. Workplace Health 2017 provides an excellent forum for discussion on a wide range of topical and important occupational health concerns and the Colt Foundation is very pleased to support the At Work Partnership with this initiative.

Seminar sponsors:

Medgate UK Ltd produces Cohort, the occupational health system. We are pleased to support Workplace Health 2017.

Employee Absence, Health and Engagement

Empactis is very pleased to again be supporting this leading conference, Workplace Health 2017, and contributing to a successful, entertaining and educational programme.

Conference dinner and entertainment

Network and chat with fellow delegates and speakers in a relaxed atmosphere at our conference dinner at 7.30pm. Our entertainment will add a sparkle to the evening!

Workplace Health 2017

This two-day annual programme from The At Work Partnership provides an in-depth clinical and management update on some of the cutting-edge issues in occupational health today. We have assembled a group of leading experts to bring you an unparalleled seminar, with practical information on some of the most important topics affecting your work.

This seminar is designed for:

- OH nurses and physicians from the UK and overseas
- HR managers • OH physiotherapists • Safety and health practitioners • Case managers • Occupational hygienists

Recent delegates at this event said:

"Highly relevant. Quality of speakers and delivery excellent throughout."

Dr Ian Charles, UK medical director, Health Services UK,
Dow Chemical Services UK Ltd

"Value for money. Informative. You always walk away with new knowledge and ideas"

Mrs. Sonja Schwartz, OH manager, Anglian Water Services Ltd

"Informative & enjoyable, would recommend to others."

Gail Haigh, Drax Power Limited

"Excellent, collaborative and directive. A quality programme."

Sponsorship and exhibition opportunities

To exhibit at this event or advertise in the delegate documentation, please contact Janie Acton on 07598 739 115 or e-mail janie.acton@atworkpartnership.co.uk

How will attending this event benefit you?

You will gain:

- An analysis of the GMC guidance on consent and its implications for OH, from Prof Diana Kloss, and an examination of what has been achieved, and what still needs to be done in workplace health, with Prof Dame Carol Black – in our two Colt Foundation keynote lectures.
- Guidance on what works in wellbeing – what are the most worthwhile interventions?
- Practical skills in managing complex health-and-work cases, and improving communication with clients and GPs
- An up-to-the-minute understanding of OH law and ethics, and how they affect your role and responsibilities
- An insight into what other organisations are doing best, with our case studies
- Plenty of opportunities to network with speakers and fellow delegates – including at our conference dinner.
- Opportunities to see new products at our OH exhibition

Don't miss out – Workplace Health 2017 promises to be one of the most exciting OH events for 2017 – avoid disappointment by booking your place early!
